

Metro is hiring Automotive Service Technicians (Bus Mechanics) with over 50 vacancies.

Get a bonus of up to $7000!

We're a great career option for mechanics looking for stability and to make a difference in the Washington Metropolitan region.

Certification/Licensure required for the position:

- ASE certification in one field (Transit Bus, Automotive, Medium/Heavy Truck or School Bus)
- Military Occupational Skills Course (MOSC) certifications in a related field
- Associate's degree in Automotive Technology
- Automotive Manufacturer-specific certifications
- Two (2) years of vocational training in transit bus, automotive, medium/heavy truck or school bus maintenance from an accredited school recognized by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges (ACCSC)

You MUST complete our on line application to be considered for this position. Visit: wmata.com/careers. Apply for job opening number: 250614

Metro offers comprehensive benefits, including competitive pay, include health, dental, retirement plans, paid holidays, annual and sick leave, tuition reimbursement, career advancement opportunities, free transportation on Metro Bus and Metro Rail and eligibility for a signing bonus up to $7000.

scan to apply

NOTICE: The Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA) may use any information you provide for recruitment purposes. You understand that WMATA (i) must make such information available to third parties when required to do so by law or judicial authority; (ii) may make such information available to third parties to support the recruitment process; and (iii) adheres to all applicable data privacy laws and regulations. Please see WMATA's Privacy Policy for more information.

