1. Application of the Tariff

The rules stated herein are applicable to the transportation of passengers on the Metrorail and Metrobus systems of the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority from one point to another within the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Zone which generally covers territories within the District of Columbia, the cities of Alexandria, Falls Church, Fairfax, Manassas, and Manassas Park and the counties of Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, and part of Prince William, and the political subdivisions of the Commonwealth of Virginia located within those counties, and the counties of Montgomery, Prince George's, and parts of Charles and Anne Arundel and political subdivisions of the State of Maryland located in said counties. For information regarding paratransit service in the above locations, please refer to the Customer Guide to MetroAccess available online at <https://www.wmata.com/service/accessibility/metro-access/>.

2. Metro Transit Police

The Metro Transit Police Department (MTPD) was established by the authority of Congress in 1976. MTPD police officers have tri-state jurisdiction with responsibility for a variety of law enforcement and public safety functions in transit facilities throughout the Washington, DC Metropolitan area. As the only tri-jurisdictional police agency in the country, MTPD police officers have jurisdiction and arrest powers throughout the 1,500 square mile Transit Zone that includes Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia for crimes that occur in or against Transit Authority facilities¹.

Metro Transit Police officers are everywhere in the system on Metrobuses and trains, at stations, and in parking lots. To contact Metro Transit Police in an emergency dial 911 or 202-962-2121. Passengers may also contact Metro Transit Police in non-emergency circumstances by text message to 696873 or "MyMTPD."

I.

SERVICE CHANGE OR INTERRUPTION

1. Schedule Changes

Metro reserves the right to change schedules of transit service without notice to the public, except as set forth in the Metro Compact and Board Policy Resolutions.

2. Accidents and Delays

Metro will not be liable for delays caused by accidents, breakdowns, road or traffic conditions, severe weather, or other conditions beyond its control and provides no guarantee that passengers will arrive at or depart from any point at any specific time. Metro shall not be liable for a failure to provide service either from the point of origin or to any point en route due to conditions over which Metro has no control such as Acts of God, acts of terrorism or other violence or road conditions that make it inadvisable to operate service in the sole opinion of Metro. In such instances, Metro shall not be liable for damage for any reason whatsoever.

3. Guaranteed Ride Home

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments sponsors Guaranteed Ride Home (GRH), a program that provides regular commuters of the Metro transit system with a free and reliable ride home in the event of an unexpected emergency. Metro passengers may take advantage of GRH up to four times per year to get home for unexpected emergencies such as a personal illness or a sick child. GRH can also be used for unscheduled overtime. GRH is designed to rescue commuters who are worried about how to get home when an emergency arises. Participation is free with registration at <https://www.wmata.com/service/guaranteed-ride-home.cfm> or call 1-800-745-RIDE (7433).

ESCALATORS

1. Tampering with Escalators

It is unlawful for any person to stop, impede, interfere with or tamper with an escalator or elevator or any part of an escalator or elevator apparatus or to use an escalator or elevator emergency stop button, unless this action is taken by a person with the knowledge or with a reasonable, good faith belief that an emergency makes the action necessary to preserve or protect human life or property or unless such action is taken by a Metro employee or emergency response personnel or Metro contractor acting pursuant to their official duties.

2. Safety of Escalators

Passengers on escalators should face forward and hold the handrail at all times while riding the escalators. Passengers may also display a government issued photo ID and show their Medicare card to pay the discounted rate of senior/disabled fare upon boarding any Metrobus.

Disability ID/SmarTrip® cards are issued on the same day if you meet the eligibility criteria and on a walk in basis at the Metro Transit Accessibility Center located at 600 5th Street NW, Washington, DC. See the Metro Tariff on Fares and Service for additional information on discount fare rates.

4. Disabled Veterans

Disabled veterans who have been granted a 60% or greater disability rating by the Department of Veterans' Affairs (VA) who present the original disability award letter from the VA to the Office of Eligibility Certification and Outreach will automatically qualify for a Disability ID/SmarTrip® card and shall be entitled to reduced fares. Veterans who have been granted a 100% disability rating from the VA may also show the DD Form 2765 Department of Defense/Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card to receive the Disability ID/SmarTrip® card.

This PCA will be permitted to pay the reduced rate only when accompanying the eligible customer. One PCA SmarTrip® card will be issued to the eligible Reduced Fare Customer. The necessity for PCA will be certified by Metro. Metro reserves the right to verify information provided by applicants, including contacting certifying health care professionals and/or the review of applications by Metro staff physicians.

Additional information regarding PCA eligibility can be obtained online at <https://www.wmata.com/service/accessibility/metro-access/>. Service animals include but are not limited to dogs and miniature horses that have been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for persons with disabilities. Exotic animals are not considered service animals under the ADA. Comfort or therapy animals, which are used solely to provide emotional support, are also not considered service animals under the ADA. Pets, exotic animals or emotional support animals are not permitted on Metrorail or Metrobus without the animal enclosed in a carrier.

Miniature horses performing as service animals must meet the following criteria:

- a. Generally range in height from 24 inches to 34 inches measured to the shoulders;
